

Class 3 Science - Plants

Plants are living things that need sunlight, water, air, and nutrients to grow.

Plants need sunlight because sunlight provides the energy they use to make their own food. This process is called photosynthesis.

Plants also need water. Roots absorb water from the soil and carry it to different parts of the plant.

Leaves are important because they contain chlorophyll, which helps plants use sunlight to make food.